

Picture It! Teen Read Week 2011

Learn to draw Manga Workshop

We could contact FeelArtistic for to see if it is possible to have them lead a workshop at the library. Here is their contact information:

16300 Mill Creek Blvd, Suite # 114 Mill Creek, WA 98012

artist@FEELartistic.org

Phone: 425-939-1550

Blog Contests

Photography contest ideas

1. Love to Read! Love to take photos! Show us how reading transports you. Be creative.
2. "Show us your world." What is your favorite part of being a teen in Mountlake Terrace
3. "Reading Rocks" Teens take photos of their favorite places to read.
4. Take photos of your favorite character (costumes are cool)!

Drawing contest ideas

1. Draw your favorite character.
2. Create a comic either original or of a book you have read. For a list of good comic sites:, the Cincinnati library has a good resource: <http://teenspace.cincinnati.library.org/web/comics.asp>
3. Create manga or anime character contest. Here is a list of some suggested anime resources from VOYA: <http://www.voya.com/2010/09/18/the-anime-ted-library/>
4. Design a bookmark for the library

Possible incentives or prizes could be gift card to amazon.com, itunes, or a digital camera if there is a budget for it.

Booklists

1. Focus on manga, anime, or graphic novels: VOYA recommends a book on manga a graphic novels: <http://www.voya.com/2010/09/21/library-collections-for-teens-manga-and-graphic-novels/>
2. Since it is October we could also feature fantasy or horror books (ghosts, werewolves, vampires, witches and other supernatural beings)

Movie Nights

Ideas for movies in October

Here is a website which features lists of Anime movies:

<http://www.animevice.com/movies/>

Horror

Supernatural

Ghosts

Vampires (Twilight)

Scary movie sleepover in the library (not sure how man liability issues there are on this one)

Comic book swap

Teens bring in their comic books and trade with each other